Reditus acquires the entirety of the share capital of Partblack, SA

Under the terms and for the effects of the provisions in article 248 of the Securities Code, Reditus SGPS, SA informs that Reditus SGPS, SA has acquired the entirety of the share capital of Partblack, SA, the exclusive representative of Panda Security in Portugal, for the value of 7.5 million euros, following an evaluation of the assets involved.

Partblack is the exclusive distributor in Portugal of the security software of Panda Security which has shown consistent growth and profitability, with an estimated Turnover and EBITDA for 2009 of approximately 5.0 and 1.4 million euros, respectively.

This acquisition will enable Reditus to increase competences and strengthen its offer of services in the area of Outsourcing of IT Infrastructures, promoting our entry into market segments where Reditus is not yet present.

This operation is in line with our strategy of growth through acquisitions which strengthen the value chain and offer of services, complementing the strong organic growth that Reditus has registered over the past few years.
